

How to add a Stop Bead to your thread!

Pick up alternate colour #8 seed bead.

Move bead down thread leaving a gap between end of thread and bead of approx 30cm

Bring needle and thread back around and sew through the bead in the same direction as per the direction of pink arrow.

Pull thread tight and this is what your bead should look like. This stop bead is moveable should you need to adjust the length of your tail.